

Session Summary
Don Topper

Structured Approach for Knowledge Propagation to Accelerate Design Best Practices Implementation

This presentation demonstrates how Huawei is able to leverage and communicate design guidelines and their implementation across multiple product divisions, to shorten the learning curve of young engineers across a diverse organization. This has allowed Huawei to propagate lessons learned and new product needs in a timely and effective fashion.