

QuEST Forum's Social Responsibility Statement

As we look at quality in the information and communication technologies (ICT) industry, QuEST Forum understands the importance of Social and Environmental Responsibility in providing top quality products and services to ICT customers.

QuEST Forum acknowledges the ISO 26000 Guidance for Social Responsibility and the ISO 14001 Environmental Standard, and recommends that member and non-member companies reference ISO 26000 and ISO 14001 as guidelines for developing their social responsibility and environmental policies.

Service providers' and suppliers' demonstrated commitment to social and environmental responsibility underscores the overall position of the ICT industry.
